

CHIC SEATTLE / HOTEL ÄNDRA

SEATTLE LUXE

Seattle finally has a boutique hotel in Belltown, the district known for fabulous cuisine and invigorating nightlife. Craig Schafer's new 119-room Hotel Ändra is just a short stroll from the downtown shopping and theaters, and though it's small, the property also will offer spa services (early 2006) and a fitness center. Ändra's crown jewel is the 1,200-square-foot Monarch Suite ($1,200 per night). The expansive master bath offers a Jacuzzi tub for two and a double granite shower (with room for six, actually). The custom Scandinavian designs of Andrea Dawson Sheehan perfect the open living area. The hotel is already attracting such A-listers as Kiefer Sutherland and Tom Arnold.
